The Strength of your application depends a lot on the validity of your idea and how it complements the regional and national objectives, your own capacity and the capacity of your partners to carry out the work involved, and the current priorities at the current time. However here are some tips:

- Join Us at our upcoming event "2020 Erasmus+ Capacity Building in Higher Education Seminar" in November 21st, 2019 "Register Here".
- Don't miss the upcoming online info sessions that will be held by the European Commission about Erasmus+ Capacity Building in the Field of Higher Education call for proposals: (1) How to successfully complete and finalise your project proposal, 12 November 10:00 CET. (2) Erasmus+ Capacity Building in the Field of Higher Education: Focus on Asia, 15 November, 10:00 CET. (Links to the CBHE web-streams will soon be available on the CBHE section of the EACEA funding page: https://eacea.ec.europa.eu/erasmus-plus/funding_en)
- Check our website and portal (efportal.ju.edu.jo) for documents, presentations and videos about Erasmus+ CBHE Call for proposals (Click Here).
- Make sure your proposal meets these requirements: Relevance, Quality of Design and Implementation, Quality of team and Cooperation arrangements, impact and sustainability plan.
- Watch our recorded Web - Seminar video on "Tips for a Winning Grant Proposal" presented by EU Programs Expert Prof. Raniero Chelli (Click Here).
- Refer to The National Erasmus+ Office at Jordan to overcome any obstacle you face during the preparation of your proposal also don't hesitate to contact us at Externally Funded Projects.
- Watch this video "Erasmus+ How to write a project (Problem tree)" (Click Here).
- Ask yourself this: Does your Proposal fit with current regional and/or national priorities?.
- Read FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions) document available on the Official Call Link.

The Key to Success is to Focus on Goals, Not Obstacles
