

Memorandum of Understanding

on Academic Cooperation between

The University of Jordan

and

Indiana State University

First party: The University of Jordan, Amman, 11942, Jordan, represented by its President or designated officer.

Second party: Indiana State University ("ISU").

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree to the following:

Article 1- To work cooperatively toward developing the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
3. Conducting collaborative research projects.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.

Article 2- This MoU does not specify or imply any financial commitment or obligation by either party. The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed to via a separate written agreement between the faculties, or institutes, which carry out the specific projects and shall be subject to the written approval of ISU's Provost. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the national, state and local laws and regulations applicable to each party.

Article 3- It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in Article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support at both parties.

Article 4- The two parties will agree to the division of ownership and returns of intellectual property prior to commencing any collaborative research activities, under this MoU, that may result in intellectual property.

Article 5- This MoU may be amended or modified by written agreements signed by the representatives of both parties, and will become part of this MoU.

Article 6- This MoU is valid for a period of four years commencing on the date signed by the last party, and may be renewed after being reviewed and renegotiated by both parties.

Article 7- This MoU may, at any time during its period of validity, be terminated by one of the parties upon written notice to the other party not later than six months before the termination date. Upon any such termination, the parties may mutually agree to allow any ongoing activities to continue.
