

Memorandum of Understanding on Academic Cooperation between

The University of Jordan

And

The University of Surrey

First party: The University of Jordan, Amman, 11942, Jordan, represented by its President or his deputy or personnel authorized in writing. (Hereinafter referred to as the PARTY ONE).

Second party: The University of Surrey, Stag Hill Campus, Guildford, Surrey, GU2 7XH, represented by its President and Vice-Chancellor. (Hereinafter referred to as the PARTY TWO)

The Preamble of this MoU and its annexes, if any, shall be considered an integral part of it and shall be read together as a unit for all purposes and intentions.

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree with the legislation in force in the two parties to the following:

Article 1- To develop the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Conducting collaborative research projects.
3. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.
6. Arrangement to accept PARTY ONE sponsored students at different MSc and PhD courses at the PARTY TWO.

Article 2- The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed between the faculties, or institutes, or centers which carry out the specific projects. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of both countries. Both parties also carry out their duties under this MoU in accordance with the legislation in force for the two parties.

Article 3- It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in Article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources at both parties if available, and financial supporters and their conditions, if any.

Article 4- The two parties will agree to the division of ownership and returns of intellectual property prior to commencing any collaborative research activities, under this MoU, that may result in intellectual property, and in conformity with relevant legislation.

Article 5- Neither party shall be entitled to use the name, logo and/or trademark of the other party without obtaining its written and prior consent and within the scope of this MoU

Article 6- This MoU may be amended or modified by written agreements signed by the representatives of both parties, and will become part of this MoU.

Article 7- Disputes shall be resolved as amicably as possible. In the absence of a satisfactory solution for both parties, a committee is formed and its members are named from both parties in accordance with the legislation in force, to resolve the disputes arising from the change and/or implementation of any item of the MoU.

Article 8- This MoU is valid for a period of four years commencing on the date signed by the last party, and may be renewed after being reviewed and renegotiated by both parties.

Article 9- This MoU may, at any time during its period of validity, be terminated by one of the parties upon written notice to the other party not later than six months before the termination date. The termination will not affect ongoing activities.

Article 10- The MoU consists of TEN articles, including this article, with the consent and acceptance of the Parties and in two identical originals, each bearing the signature of the two parties.
