between
The University of Jordan, Jordan
and
Hamburg University of Technology (TU Hamburg)

This Agreement is entered into by and between The University of Jordan (UJ), a state-supported institution of higher education located in Amman, Jordan, represented by its president, and Hamburg University of Technology (TU Hamburg), at Am Schwarzenberg Campus 1, 21073 Hamburg, represented by the President Prof. Dr.-Ing. Andreas Timm-Giel, represented in this agreement by Prof. Dr. Alexander Penn as Dean of Process Engineering. Agree to the following forms of co-operation in the fields of research, study and teaching, agree to following forms of co-operation in the fields of research, study and teaching

Definitions

The following definitions will be used in this Agreement:

- Contracting parties: The University of Jordan and Hamburg University of Technology (TU Hamburg).
- Home Institution: The contracting partner that has agreed to send the exchange student.
- Host Institution: The contracting partner that has agreed to receive the exchange student.
- Exchange students: The students of both institutions involved in the exchange according to this Agreement

1 Objectives

The purpose of the Agreement is to establish the terms and conditions under which the exchange of students between UJ and TUHH shall take place. The terms and conditions of the Agreement apply to both undergraduate and post-graduate students. Admission of candidates to study at UJ and TUHH will be at the discretion of the Host Institution.

2 Numbers of Students

Each year during the term of this Agreement, each institution may send up to two students for two semesters or four students for one semester to be enrolled as exchange students at the other institution. The number of students may be modified from time to time by mutual agreement. It is understood that a balance in number of students exchanged shall be sought over a four-year period.

The obligations of the institutions under this Agreement apply only to the exchange students, and exclude both spouses and dependents.

3 Pre-requisites for Participation

The Home Institutions will screen and select applicants for exchange on the basis of the following criteria which shall generally apply but may be waived in special cases.

- Exchange students must have a good to excellent academic record.
- Exchange students must be registered as full-time undergraduate or postgraduate students of the Home Institution.
- Undergraduate exchange students from UJ must have successfully completed at least 36 credit hours with a GPA of 2.5, while postgraduate students must have successfully completed at least 6 credit hours with a GPA of 3.0.

- Undergraduate exchange students from TUHH must have successfully completed 30 credit points completed before the stay abroad. Exchange students from both institutions must remain registered in the Home Institution during their exchange period.
- The exchange students must be able to follow the lectures in the language of instruction. The Home Institution will evaluate the language aptitude of its own students.

4 Selection and Nomination

The candidates of both institutions will use the required application form of the Host Institution.

Exchange students should be selected on the basis of merit without regard to race, national or ethnic origin, color, religion, age, sex, marital status or physical handicap.

The Host Institution will accept the candidates selected by the Home Institution if mutually acceptable academic and/or professional qualifications and standards are met. However, the Host Institution will make the final decision on the admission of candidates nominated for exchange.

5 Responsibilities of the Exchange Student

The exchange students will be responsible for:

- Paying their Home Institution tuition and fees prior to participation.
- Paying room and board expenses at the Host Institution.
- Paying for transportation to the Host Institution and within the Host country.
- Obtaining medical insurance and paying for expenses in excess of medical coverage.
- Personal expenses including materials.
- Obtaining and paying fees for an appropriate visa.
- All other debts incurred during the period of the exchange.
- Filling in an evaluation report after the study abroad period at the Host and Home institutions.
- Following the rules and regulations of the Host Institution in which they are enrolled.

6 Program of Study

The program is intended will be only with the School of process Engineering at TUHH and School of Engineering at JU. The exchange students may apply to any academic courses offered at the Host Institution as full time, non-degree students at a level determined by the Host Institution.

- The Host Institution will endeavor to ensure that students are admitted to courses with the desired priority as applied. However, admission to a specific department or course is subject to the student being satisfactorily qualified for the chosen area of study and/or course level, and the availability of places in the courses.
- Exchange students will be subject to the academic requirements and rules of conduct of the Host Institution. All students are required to enroll in a full-time course of study or equivalent amount of credits. At UJ, 12 credits for undergraduate and 6 credits for post-graduate students per semester/term are considered as full-time course load. Accreditation for the work carried out by a student during the period of the exchange will be at the discretion of the student's Home Institution.
- The Host Institution will provide the Home Institution with a final transcript, describing the student's academic performance.

7 Length of Study

Exchange students will spend a minimum of one semester/term, and a maximum of one academic year (which may include a summer semester/term) at the Host Institution. Shorter exchange periods may be approved if part of internships, practical training, or field work.

Upon completion of the period of study at the Host Institution, exchange students must return to the Home Institution.

8 Fees and Expenses

Exchange students will continue to pay tuition fees at their Home Institution according to its own regulations. TUHH will exempt UJ's incoming exchange students from paying TUHH tuition, academic, course or other fees. UJ will use tuition and fees paid by its outgoing exchange students to cover the tuition and fees of the incoming TUHH exchange students. A small sum levied for student activities may however be allowed. All other expenses incurred will remain the responsibility of the exchange student.

9 Responsibilities of the Home and Host Institutions

Contracting parties shall have the option of terminating the participation of a student should that student violate the laws or regulations of the Host Institution, or be found by a competent authority to have violated the laws of the host country.

Contracting parties will endeavor to provide a pre-arrival orientation to students admitted to the exchange program. The Host Institution will arrange an orientation program for the exchange students upon arrival.

Applications for participation in the Exchange Program will be sent by the Home Institution to the Host Institution at least three (3) months before the start of the academic year/semester/term in which the exchange will take place.

Returning students will be asked to complete a report form evaluating their exchange.

The Host Institution shall make every reasonable effort to assist students participating under the terms of this Agreement in finding suitable accommodation.

10 Recognition for Participation

Any academic credit earned at the Host Institution by the participant may be transferred back to the Home Institution in accordance with procedures determined by the latter.

11 Coordination and Administration of the Exchange

The management of the exchange will be the responsibility of the International Affairs Unit at The University of Jordan, the International Office at TUHH and the Institute of Environmental Technology and Energy Economics at Hamburg University of Technology (TUHH)

12 Commencement of Exchange

Enrollment of students according to this Agreement will commence in the first possible semester/term after signing the Agreement.
