

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

ON ACADEMIC COOPERATION

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF JORDAN

AND

UNIVERSITI SAINS MALAYSIA

First party: The University of Jordan, Amman, 11942, Jordan, represented by its President or designated officer, Hereinafter referred to as the first party.

Second party: Universiti Sains Malaysia, a public institution of higher learning established under the Universities and University Colleges Act 1971, is represented by its School of Chemical Sciences, with its main address at Level 6, Chancellery Building, Universiti Sains Malaysia, 11800 USM, Pulau Pinang, Malaysia, Hereinafter referred to as the second party.

The introduction of this MoU and its annexes, if any, shall be considered an integral part of it and shall be read together as a unit for all purposes and intentions.

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree with the legislation in force in the two parties to the following:

Article 1- To develop the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Conducting collaborative research projects.
3. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.

Article 2- The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed between the faculties, or institutes, which carry out the specific projects. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of both countries. Both parties also carry out their duties under this MoU in accordance with the legislation in force for the two parties.

Article 3- It is understood that the implementation of any of the types of cooperation stated in Article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources at both parties if available, and financial supporters and their conditions, if any.

Article 4- The two parties will agree to the division of ownership and returns of intellectual property prior to commencing any collaborative research activities, under this MoU, that may result in intellectual property, and in conformity with relevant legislation.

Neither party shall be entitled to use the name, logo and/or trademark of the other party without obtaining its written and prior consent and within the scope of this MoU.

Article 5- This MoU may be amended or modified by written agreements signed by the representatives of both parties, and will become part of this MoU.

Article 6- Disputes shall be resolved as amicably as possible. In the absence of a satisfactory solution for both parties, the party's country court as the defendant shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes arising from the change and/or implementation of any item of the MoU.

Article 7- This MoU is valid for a period of four years commencing on the date signed by the last party, and may be renewed after being reviewed and renegotiated by both parties.

Article 8- This MoU may, at any time during its period of validity, be terminated by one of the parties upon written notice to the other party not later than six months before the termination date. The termination will not affect ongoing activities.

Article 9- The MoU consists of nine articles, including this article, with the consent and acceptance of the Parties and in two identical originals.
