THE ANNUAL MEETING AND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE CONSORTIUM FOR RESEARCH IN POLITICAL THEORY (CRIPT), 'POLITICAL THEORY AND CULTURAL STUDIES: OTHER VOICES AND NEW PERSPECTIVES', MAY 22ND-26TH 2017, HACETTEPE UNIVERSITY, ANKARA/TURKEY

Consortium for Research in Political Theory (CRIPT) is an international network of joint research and education in humanities and social sciences with a specific interest in innovation in political theory and practice. CRIPT promotes the value of innovative research and teaching and aims to accelerate the intercultural and interdisciplinary exchange of ideas and practices through the advancement of inter-institutional collaboration. The Consortium has been established by the Political Theory and Innovation Network (POLITEIA) within the framework of the KAT07 Erasmus+ World, Mobility with Partner Countries Program. The executive body of CRIPT is jointly formed by the POLITEIA, the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, the Faculty of Communication, the Urban Studies Center and the Society for Political Theory at Hacettepe University and the Faculty of Governance, Economics and Social Sciences (EGE Rabat) at Mohammed VI Polytechnic University.

The Annual Meeting and International Conference of the CRIPT will be held at Hacettepe University in Ankara, Turkey between May 22nd-26th, 2017. The Annual Meeting and International Conference brings together participants from partner institutions to discuss research from a rich spectrum of issues in political theory and practice. The Annual Meeting and International Conference also houses internationalization oriented meetings for academic and administrative staff from partner Universities and scholarly associations to promote and discuss further possibilities of collaboration under the framework of the Key Action 1, Key Action 2 and Horizon 2020.

The Annual Meeting and International Conference of the CRIPT is jointly organized and hosted by the Political Theory and Innovation Network (POLITEIA), the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, the Faculty of Communication, the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, the Society for Political Theory (PTT) and Urban Studies Center at Hacettepe University in association with Mohammed VI Polytechnic University, Faculty of Governance, Economics and Social Sciences (EGE Rabat).

GUIDELINES FOR THE CONFERENCE

FUNDING

Erasmus+ World

The Annual Meeting and International Conference of the CRIPT will be sponsored by Hacettepe University and the KA107 Erasmus+ World, Mobility with Partner Countries Program. In order to be eligible for funding including travel expenses and daily stipend, applicants should be affiliated with partner institutions who have already signed an inter-institutional agreement on teaching and/or staff mobility with Hacettepe University within the framework of the Erasmus+ World, Mobility with Partner Countries Program. Participants from partner institutions should submit their Teaching or Staff Mobility documents to info@politeia.center by May 19, 2017.

Erasmus+ Europe

Please kindly note that Hacettepe University will not be able to directly fund participations from our European partners. Applicants affiliated with our partner institutions in Europe should rather apply to their own International Office in order to seek and facilitate funding opportunities for Teaching and Staff Training Mobility. Rules, procedures and schedule regarding Teaching and Staff Training Mobility applications may vary depending on particular institutional policies. For further questions please send your inquiries to info@politeia.center.

ACCOMMODATION

A limited number of rooms may be provided at Hacettepe University Residences. In order to check availability and make a reservation please contact info@politeia.center. Following the announcement of the Final Program participants will also be informed about a list of hotels with discounted prices.

PANEL AND PAPER SUBMISSIONS

Academic and administrative panels and thematic workshops of the program are planned by Co-Chairs and the Program Committee of the Conference. The Annual Meeting and International Conference of the CRIPT welcomes paper and poster presentations along with thematic sessions on all aspects of political theory and practice. CRIPT Conference aims to bring scholars, administrative staff and students to discuss theoretical research and innovative practices to promote academic and interinstitutional collaboration. Paper, poster and panel proposals for thematic sessions should be submitted to info@politeia.center by May 12, 2017. The Final Program of the Annual Meeting and the International Conference of the CRIPT will be announced by the Organizing Committee on May 17, 2017. For further information regarding the details for paper and panel submissions please contact info@politeia.center.
