

Corrigendum to the 2020 Erasmus + programme guide

Coronavirus response: Extraordinary Erasmus+ calls to support digital education readiness and creative skills

Following the revision of the Erasmus+ 2020 Annual Work Programme announced earlier, two new calls were launched to respond to the educational challenges resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

THE CALL FOR PARTNERSHIPS FOR CREATIVITY

support projects in the fields of youth, school education and adult education. The call aims to develop skills and competences that encourage creativity and boost quality, innovation and recognition of youth work.

THE CALL FOR DIGITAL EDUCATION READINESS

support projects in school education, vocational education and training, and higher education. This call will aim to enhance online, distance and blended learning - including supporting teachers and trainers, as well as safeguarding the inclusive nature of digital learning opportunities.

The deadline to apply is the 29 October 2020
